

Michael Godard's "Ink Slinger"

The party is one night only — from 5 to 9 p.m. Sunday in Lahaina — and it's not to be missed, Sargent's Fine Art said. The gallery at 802 Front St. is celebrating one of the nation's top-selling artists, Michael Godard, who is known as the "Rock Star of the Art World." Godard has intoxicated art enthusiasts around the world with whimsical images of martini glasses; olives that come to life; and mirrored eccentricities of human behavior such as gambling, sports, wine and cigars, among other feats. He will tell stories of his art, charity projects and sign artwork at the event. "Godard's work is in the collection of rock stars and private collectors, young and old. His art even adorns the walls of the Pentagon," the gallery said. For information, call Sargent's Fine Art at 667-4030.
